Michaela Haynes

Profile

I have over 30 years experience working with children and adults in an educational environment.
I have 15 years experience of my professional practice as an artist, making, exhibiting and selling work:

email: michaela38@hotmail.co.uk
tel: 07779877670

Education

BA(Hon) Sustainable Design And Practice - First Class

Postgraduate Certificate Artists in Health, Education and Community Settings

Work History

Present employment:

2004- present
Freelance Artist, designing, selling, sculpture, drawings and paintings.
Art commissions and participatory art workshops

Previous employment:

54 Lemons
2016-2019
Pottery and craft cafe manager/owner, St Ives Cornwall

Tate Art Gallery
2015-2019
Facilitator of art workshops in the gallery , St Ives Cornwall

Wakefield Council
April 2013- 2014
Part time Tutor of drawing & Painting and Ceramics, Teaching 16+ to City & Guilds.

Private Home Tutor
2012-2014
Teaching art and design to home schooled pupils.

Alfreton Grange Arts College
2006-2012
Art technician/artist in residence, Teaching art as cover.
Advising on art subject teaching, displays, stock, supporting teachers, facilitating ceramic workshops.

Derby University(degree)
2001-2004

Step - Forward Education Trust
2000-2001
Part Time support worker
Working with teenagers who have been excluded from mainstream education

Raising my family
1992-2000

Balfour Beatty Construction
1985-1992
Computer operator, Operating IBM mainframe computer/ VDU input

Voluntary work:

1986-1998
Teaching Sunday School, Running Local Youth Group setting up a mother and baby group.

Teaching Experience :

I have taught for the last 30 years first voluntary then paid.
For 6 years I taught art/ceramics at a secondary school while being an art technician.
Home schooling tutor for 2 years before moving to Cornwall.
At Wakefield Adult Education I taught Ceramics and Drawing/Painting to students aged 16 plus to City & Guilds qualification.
In the last 5 years I have taught art ceramics in my own pottery cafe and facilitated workshops at the Tate Gallery St Ives.