Personal Profile

Momoka is a textile artist based in Nottingham, specialising in hand woven fabric. Through her training in Japan to become a Kimono Dresser at the age of 17, she learnt the value of textile. She works on a 16 shafts dobby loom, weaving art-let pieces and heirloom quality garments. Her interest in memory; how it is recollected in our brainm delicately decay over time took her to explore creating distressed feature on hand woven fabric surface.
