

Julia Forte - Artist

PROFILE

Born and living in Central London, I am a multi-disciplinary, innovative, self employed artist. My primary focus is oil painting, map drawing and casting and using these skills to create bespoke, unique globes. I have 30 years of experience using multi media techniques and bring this experience together to create my new body of work.

EXHIBITIONS

- 2021

Fisher London - Solo Exhibition - 'A sense of time and place'. Hand made Globes depicting historic London maps and panoramas.
- 2017

'Mapped' Londonist. Museum of London exhibition of hand drawn London maps.
- 2016

'Primitive Streak' : Helen Storey, collaboration, Hayward Gallery, Wellcome foundation, UK/worldwide exhibits depicting the first 100 hours of life. Sculpture, pewter casting.
- 2015

London Fashion Week: Michiko Koshino, skeletal sculptures.

COMMISSIONS

- 2021

Multiple bespoke globes for clients which depict a specific location on an historic London map.

JMA Architects - bespoke architectural commission.

Private client, bespoke architectural casting and decorative painting for exhibition of fine antiques.
- 2019

Oil paintings commission for international client with the theme of Vanitas/Memento Mori
- 2018

Corporate client: Pewter cast skeletal sculpture for awards ceremony.

CONTACT

Email

thejcforte@gmail.com

Telephone

07801 418 438

Social media

Instagram

https://www.instagram.com/juliaforte_globemaker/

Facebook

<https://www.facebook.com/juliaforteglobemaker>

Twitter

<https://twitter.com/jfglobe maker>

Relevant Skills

Oil painting

Pencil drawing

Pen and Ink

Casting - plaster, pewter

Mould making

Globemaking

Italian plastering

Trompe L'oeil

Decorative finishes

Woodturning

Technical

Adobe Photoshop